“ I sent you a Good Morning text at 6:52am saying Good Morning Sis!! I love You!! Not knowing that you were on your way to be with the Lord. So, I waited patiently for you to respond like you would normally do. Instead, I received a phone call stating that you've received your wings. I will treasure the memories we've shared on Lee Street. To the family, I pray that god gives you all strength during this difficult time. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning"

Love Always,

“ The morning God called you home, I sent you a text message at 6:52am saying Good Morning Sis!!! I love you!! I waited patiently for you to respond not knowing that you've received your wings. I will hold on to the great memories we've shared. Especially the ones we've shared on Lee Street. To Ms. Delores & Family, I pray that God gives you all strength during this difficult time. May the memories of Necolette bring you peace. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning"

“ Eternal God: I didn't know Necolette Grant personally, but Spiritually. The Prayers Offered for Her don't Stop but, Transfers to Her Loved Ones, who Cared for Her, Children, Grandchildren, Mother, (Father), Blended Families, including Friends & Coworkers. You saw to it that She became Travel Ready and when it was Time, Please find Comfort to Understand, She could Not be Kept Here Past God's Perfect Timing. May The Loved Ones Call on Your name, Jesus so You Will Help Them to get their Earthly Houses Ready to Spend Eternity with You and Necolette. Mother, Grandmother, Daughter, Sister, You whom She Loved through Blending. I Ask in Jesus name. Amen. Evangelist/Prayer Warrior Frederica Ladson

“ To the family.....Nikki was a beautiful person that will definitely be missed! She ran across my mind on this past Monday. The last conversation that we shared was me telling her to fight and that I was praying incessantly! She won! To her children and mother...Nikki was love! Memories are something that no one can ever take away! Now she has a new walk, new talk, new robe, and new address! That smile will be missed, but never forgotten! Take your rest Nikki...take your rest! Solider of God well done!
