

Andre Lamar Jackson

August 19, 1971 - January 15, 2021

Andre Lamar Jackson (affectionately known as Dre) was born on August 19th, 1971 in Manhattan, N.Y. Dre was the youngest of 4 sons born to the late Marion James Jackson and Roseann Jackson. He departed this life on January 15, 2021.

Dre graduated from Jane Adams High School in the Bronx, N.Y. He spent most of his career working as an operating room tech at Bellevue Hospital until he was no longer able. In 2003, his girlfriend; Jamila, gave birth to their only daughter whom he loved dearly. It was clear to many that Fatherhood had become one of the most important roles to him. Dre's presence has always been known to brighten up the room. He took the time to show his love and light to those around him despite his personal battles. To many, he is remembered as the one who was always ready for a good time, good music and showed lots of love. As stated by a friend; "He was definitely a VIBE"!

Dre was loved by many and his physical presence will be missed by all who had the honor of meeting him. He leaves to cherish the memories of his legacy: his Mother: Roseann Jackson, daughter: Jade Parsons-Jackson, his long-term love of 20 years: Jamila Parsons, Brothers: John Snipe, James Jackson and Mark Jackson, siblings in his heart: Keith VanDyke, Senora VanDyke Harris (Chris) and Samuel VanDyke Jr., 3 nieces, 2 nephews, a host of beloved cousins, friends, and best friends that were as Brothers.

“ Dear Jackson and Snipe Families,

I am sorry I did not get to meet Andre Lamar Jackson. He looks a lot like his father James. The Jacksons are a large family. Although, his paternal grandparents lived across the road from our family, on Old Chas. was never fortunate to have the pleasure of knowing him. We can understand the ways of the older folks are no longer kept. It was a custom, when the younger children would come down to the visit their families in the South or wherever, the parents would see that the relatives would meet their families.

Times are really changing. Anyway, God know all about the situation.

Sleep on Andre and take your rest.
