“ What I remember Barry for was when he stayed with me and my children he was there Uncle he would wake up early every morning and you would hear him coming up the stairs he stayed in the basement, He would be praying in his deep base voice "Thank you Lord for another day and he would continue on thanking the Lord for all he had done for him. He did that every morning he woke up. Barry will be missed he was a character. To David and Daria I am sorry for your loss and to his children also.
