“ Family, one of my fondest memory of Doris is when I first met her, we spoke over the phone. For a couple of days after she got a back from Cuba, I was about 11 and I was anxious ready to meet that big sister. But everybody that I spoke to prior to meeting Doris, said she was loud everybody knew her. So we agreed to meet on the school grounds, so I went to the Petersfield school bus, and they pointed her out to me and oh my God to get off of that bus, we hug the kiss and talk. She told me about my big face. You look just like your daddy and it was on since then. I was so happy to have a big sister and We've had our ups and Downs. Yes, Lord, we have good and bad. But I wouldn't have traded her for in this world. I will miss you, Doris I Love You Big Little Sister ❤️❤️💜💙
