“ There are very few people in life that you come across and can genuinely call them a friend. I worked with Mr. Jones in his last couple of years at MUSC and from our very first interaction he was always warm with only words of encouragement. With nothing but pride in his eyes I can remember when he discussed his diet and exercise routine so that he could complete the Cooper River Bridge run with his daughter. You mentored me without knowing it but the more I think about it maybe you knew exactly what you were doing.
