“ Mr.Winkie, was a very nice and humble person. To know was to love him. When I was younger working at night at in Hollywood SC, he was my protector. He always told me grandma you don't have to worry about her. I got her and that he did. He always made sure I had my dinner from Piggly Wiggly Deli and kept me company while I was at work. I always ask mom about him. But rest up Mr . Winkie Job Well Done, I will truly miss you and those talks made me into the person I am today. Love you 💔 Shaquina Smith

“ To the Richards Family, You all my sincere condolences. I met Winkie as I would call him, working along with the staff of Dorothy's and I can honestly say, Winkie loved his job. My late mother and Winkie were good friends thru the funeral industry and he was always the same. Winkie I know heaven rejoiced when you entered the gates, sleep on and take your rest, we all loved you, but God loved you best.
