

James Henry Green

September 29, 1938 - November 2, 2014

James Henry Green “Mick” was born on September 29, 1938 in Charleston, South Carolina to the late Leon and Verna Green. James was the oldest of five children, the late Leon Green Jr., the late Carolyn Green, the late Kenneth Green and Leona Green Washington. James was a retired United States Navy veteran who served for over 20 years. After retiring from the Navy, he became a Merchant Seaman and served for many years.

As a young boy, James was an honor student and won many academic awards. He had a speech impediment but didn't let that deter him from achieving his goals. Throughout his teen years, he always worked part time jobs by helping his grandfather selling fish, fruit and vegetables in the Charleston area. James loved to roller skate and swim. After graduating from Burke High School, he joined the Navy. His military career took him around the world to places like Guam, Hawaii, Korea, Rhode Island, Virginia, California and Florida just to name a few.

James gave his life to the Lord and joined Wesley United Methodist Church at the age of eighteen. After his military career, he returned to Charleston where he attended Eastside Baptist Church for a number of years. James loved to read, watch TV, take long walks on the Battery, visiting different restaurants, traveling and was an avid sports fan. James was also active with the senior citizens center and various Veterans activities.

James is survived by his sister Leona Green Washington (Carl) of North Charleston, SC; niece, Kilar Green Meyers (Jermaine) of Raleigh, NC; nephew, Desmond Green, Sr. (Monique) of Saint Stephen, SC; niece, Kierra Washington of North Charleston, SC; great grand-nephews, Jayden and Cameron Meyers of Raleigh, NC and Desmond Green, Jr. of Saint Stephen, SC; great grand-niece, Sasha Green of Saint Stephen, SC. He is also survived by his special cousin, Jurlletha Anderson of Charleston, SC; uncle, Blease Greene (Jeanette) of Rocky Mount, NC and aunt, Berniece Jackson of Elizabeth, NJ along with a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
