

Mamie L. Randolph

March 25, 1943 - November 19, 2023

Mamie L. Randolph transitioned on November 19, 2023, in Louisiana, within the bosom of her family. Born on March 25, 1943, in Bennetts Point, SC to Willie and Janie Dais, "Nai," as her family called her, was a loving Mother, Grandmother, and Friend.

In her words, she was a "Darn good Hairdresser", but she also was a fashionable, classy diva, in her own right. She enjoyed reading, and spending time with her friends and family. She was actively loving, always a voice of wisdom and wit, and passionate about expressing individuality. She carried peace and joy with her everywhere she went, always reminding us that "God was in control."

Mamie is survived by: her daughter, Keri Randolph Burns; her grandchildren Erika D. McNeill-Randolph, Al-Jahmoni R. McNeill-Randolph, and Maya J. McNeill; her siblings Pearl Whitney (Elwood), Maggie Smith, Lillie Dease (Samuel), and Loretta Dais; and a host of family and friends whose lives she touched. She will be remembered for her love, kindness, words of wisdom and her extraordinary ability to forge meaningful bonds.

The family appreciates the support, prayers, and condolences during this difficult time.

“ Mamie helped me grow up, saw me through several major job transitions, my wedding and the subsequent dissolution. She taught me how to press on and to believe myself AND she took care of my hair (best cuts ever!!!) while taking care of my heart. I can only hope that I gave her some of the love she gave to me. I'm grateful to Keri and the family for loving her all the way through. She will always be in my heart and my memories.

Rest well until the morning.

I love you...Toby

“ My irreplaceable and love of my life Mother, whose love knew no bounds, shall forever live on in my heart and soul. Mom, you were my beacon of light and are now an angel watching over me. Your light touched everyone you encountered. I am grateful for every moment that I have been blessed to have you; It was an honor to serve you. Though I miss you, heart wrenchingly so, you have instilled in me to be strong and steady, and how to overcome. So today, I must do just that through the love of Christ, who strengthens me. Mom, I know you are in the bosom of our Lord and Savior and that gives great peace.

“ Thank you Mom, for being who you where. You are irreplaceable and sorely missed. Though we had ups and downs, we always overcame. You instilled in me to never give up and always push forward no matter what. I know that though you are not in the flesh you are ever-present in the spirit and that brings me great peace. Thank you Father God for 80 amazing years you gave my Mom. I love you Mom.
