

Mary Lee Moore

November 5, 1928 - November 11, 2014

MARY LEE ROBINSON MOORE was born March 1, 1928 in Jasper County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late John Robinson and the late Amelia Heyward Robinson Alston. She was the second child born to this union.

She attended the public school in Jasper County, South Carolina. She later moved to Charleston, South Carolina.

Mary was joined in Holy Matrimony to Charles J. Moore on December 1, 1947 in Charleston, South Carolina. The couple was blessed with eight children. She transferred her membership from Wallingford Presbyterian Church to join her husband in worship services at Francis Brown A.M.E. Church and served on the Senior Choir.

Mary was employed by Drews Awning Company on Market Street in Charleston for many years. She was later employed at Roper Hospital for ten years.

She enjoyed taking care of sick relatives and friends. She was a devoted friend to many. She loved going to yard sales and always got a bargain. She loved visiting her out of town relatives. She was jovial, energetic, helpful, tender hearted, inspiring, giving and loving.

Mary was preceded in death by: her husband, Charles J. Moore; siblings, Windows Robinson and Albertha Lee Robinson; and sons, Charles Moore, Jr. and Terry Lee Moore.

The following remain to cherish lasting memories: her children, Johnnie Lee Singletary, Dorothy R. Latten, Gail J. Moore, Shelia M. Simmons, Myra A. Moore and Tyrone B. Moore; 12 grandchildren, great-grandchildren, brother-in-law, Jacob Lisbon; three sisters-in-law, Geneva Lisbon Heyliger, Ethel Lisbon and Sarah Lisbon; and a host of nieces, nephews, a devoted friend, Rebecca Green; and a host of other relatives and friends.
