“ My deepest condolences to the family of Miles Randy "Cornbread" Ladson! You've been a dear friend of the years! A listening ear when I needed one and an inspiration to me and my boys. From football, basketball, baseball and soccer .. from Danny Jones to College to the great beyond. Thank you for being a friend! May your family find peace. You're with your babygirl Brandy... rest in my friend I, rest in peace. Sing those melodious songs in heaven's choir !

“ My family and I are deeply saddened by the passing of our dear friend Miles ( smokey, cornbread). Randy was one of first basketball coaches who kept encouraging to be better and work hard on my game. We played golf together, basketball and just a great mentor and friend. He will be missed greatly. Take your rest my brother. MUCH LOVE, Mike Quick Gillison and family.

“ To my mentor, friend and business partner you will be missed. You taught me everything about CPR and how to conduct business while always engaging in conversation with me to make me a better man and person. Thank you for everything and continue to rest. I pray for peace and blessings to all family and friends. Your friend and business partner Warren.

“ To the famil, sad to hear of your lost. May the family be encouraged knowing that Randy was always kind and respectful to me and our family. After sharing church life together we knew each other in our professional lives, still the same kind hearted brother I knew. Rest well in Jesus.
