“ BIG BROWN... You will be missed... This one right here... Thinking back on the days that we shared a work office and we would listen to the blues all day long, then you will go on your 3-4 lunch breaks, then you will come back to the office and take a nap and then you would yell "Ship Colors" meaning it was time to go home!! The many memories that I will have!!! Rest Easy Big Brown..

“ This is how my conversation always started off with you my brother. What’s up my lil sister. My response: What’s up Brown (Big Papa). I just want you to know that I am going to miss you and our conversations dearly. I know that you are in a better place where you have no pain, no worries, and more and more love. You are with our mom, your dad, my dad, and our brothers. You were a great husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. I will always love you. As you would always say (love you lil sister).

Love always,

Lil Sister Jeanette
